Sometimes you get one foal in your farm that every guest stops and points at. And then they are gone - gone to see this captivating foal whether you want them to or not! In 2014 Mai Aljassimya was this foal. The huge dark eyes and tiny chiseled face, set on a fine throat and balanced body. Up close her sweet and inquisitive nature radiates from her, with a charm that only the Arabian can possess. The effect is multiplied when you see her move; an elevated bounce like a deer that shows her perfect balance and natural exuberance

She is the daughter of Aljassimya Farm's broodmare supreme RP Miss Surprise (WH Justice - Nefertarji by Laman HVP) who has provided the breeding program with the amazing greys, a collection of daughters by different stallions to take the farm to a new level. All share her soft expression, round black eyes, and joie de vivre, all classic characteristics of her sire WH Justice. Just this one is a bright bay, a mark of her sire FA El Rasheem, (FA El Sharwan – Virtuosa MLR) who in turn passes through the generations some of the remarkable qualities of his ancestors Marwan Al Shaqab, Versace and ZT Shakfantasy.

for Paris with Giacomo Capacci where she is one of the queens of the stable, weaving her spell on all who see her.

Born in the pastures of 100 Oaks Ranch in California she moved to Italy last fall. Very lightly shown, she has been out just once to debut as a two year old filly in Menton 2016, where she easily won her class and took the Bronze Championship for Fillies. Mai Aljassimya is now preparing
