The story of Barraq El Aliya (Ashhal Al Rayyan x Asrar Al Rayyan) and his value as breeding stallion at Al Waab begins with the vision of Sheikh Ahmed Bin Abdulla al Thani. One stallion that is really outstanding and that was discovered when he was young thanks to the breeding vision of the Sheikh. Last February during our visit at Al Waab Stud we had the chance to admire him closer and we can say without doubts that he is an elegant, harmonious stallion epitomizing the exotic type and refinement that has, over the centuries, brought so much appreciation to the horses of straight Egyptian lineage. He represents the real straight Egyptian stallion. As a breeding stallion, Barraq El Aliya and his family have proven to consistently reproduce their quality and ideal conformational characteristics, an invaluable ability to pass the movement to all the progeny. The production of Barraq El Aliya improves incredibly every year. As a matter of fact from time to time Al Waab Stud participates at the shows. Last year a great colt Asfoor Al Waab (Barraq El Aliya x Sara Al Jazira) was nominated Qatar Straight Egyptians Gold Champion. He was so fit, elegant and powerful that he could have gone to a show with no further preparation. This year Al Waab has travelled only to Kuwait for the first Straight Egyptians All Nations Cup and once more Barraq El Alya gave a Gold Champion to Al Waab with Delielah Al Waab (Barraq El Aliya x Nabeela Saqr). She was Kuwait Straight Egyptians All Nations Cup Gold Junior Fillies. Her face type and her charm are immediately visible.

We could easily realize why six judges nominated her Gold in Kuwait. Delielah Al Waab was also Gold Champion at Qatar 2015 Straight Egyptians Show. Her younger full sister Ghazalah Al Waab was nominated Kuwait Straight Egyptians All Nations Cup Gold Yearling Fillies. She looked similar to her older sister even if she is less mature since she is younger. She had many qualities that in the future will certainly make her one of the best mares in Al Waab. Both fillies represent a part of Dahman Strain family in Al Waab Stud. One of the best representatives of what Barraq El Aliya is doing is, in our opinion, the filly Ghezlan Al Waab (Barraq El Aliya x Nabeela Saqr). She is the same age of Ghazalah Al Waab and she definitely has a great future in front of her.

We can say that now Barraq El Aliya is allowed to become a star on his own terms.

At the age of 8 years Barraq El Aliya has a brilliant future in front of him. Straight Egyptian lovers make sure to visit the Al Waab Stud for a memorable experience! You can have the chance to visit Al Waab during the yearly open day after the Qatar International Show or organize a visit to witness, as we did during our last visit, how well are all the horses being looked after at Al Waab thanks to the great job of the manager and his staff. For further information and appointments contact the manager of the farm, Mr. Augustin Gigena.

Visit Al Waab and you will have for sure a memorable day and the honour to see one of the best and modern Straight Egyptian stallion nowadays: Barraq El Aliya. ○
