From the moment that Aja Angelo was born it was quite evident that he was something different, something special. He just stood out from the other foals, with his ultra refined face and muzzle, tight tippy ears, his long upright, hooky neck, clean throat and the regal way that his neck set made him appear, he also has a short back, long legs and incredible tail carriage.

Put all the aforementioned features together and the result is a very conformationally complete colt, dial in his fantastic russian style movement, his simply magnetic charisma and I think most breeder's would agree that it is time to start getting excited about the 2012 show season, especially when reflecting back to his last show the UK International A show, Towerlands. Towerlands is a very popular show, the most important, and best attended A show in the UK with over 150 entries. In the class Aja Angelo made an incredible, charismatic entrance it was simply electric, up on his toes, tail flagged, neck arched, he was not going to be denied. He won the two year old class by quite a margin garnering several twenties, achieving a total score of 92.6. In the colt championships he was the undoubted crowd favourite, and it seems the judges favourite too, being named champion of five out of six judges cards, a terrific show, and an unforgettable memory.

However, horse shows are only one facet of Aja Angelo's potential, for us it is in the breeding barn where we feel Aja Angelo will realise his true destiny. We all know his sire line very well having seen countless WH Justice offspring achieve championship honours, but we believe it is the dam line in Aja Angelo's case which passes on a very significant genetic imprint, a truly unique look. Aja Angelo is not your typical WH Justice son, true he does have his sires super front, with that wonderful upright beautifully shaped neck, but look further and Aja Angelo has the look of a very correct , very extreme Egyptian stallion.

This is no coincidence, look back in his pedigree and you will find such immortal Egyptian Stallions, such as: Crusader, Salaa El Dine, Ruminaja Ali, Shaker El Masri, Aswan, Morafic and Nazeer. I listed Crusader first because, not only was he in our opinion a much underrated stallion, I also think he probably had the most significant influence on the Aja Angelo look. When Crusader was crossed with Heloua, they produced Helaliya, who in turn when crossed with Kubinec produced FS Anastasia. At this point a mention here should go to Kubinec the stallion we think responsible for passing on Aja Angelo's fabulous movement, and super flagged tail carriage. FS Anastasia has been a terrific producing mare for Aja Arabians, her daughters have been wonderful !

Aja Angelica (Now owned by Ajman Stud), also by WH Justice. She herself has also produced very well. her first foal by Marwan Al Shaqab, Aj Asyad, who was just recently named 2012 Gold Champion in Abu Dhabi.

FS Anastasia also produced, Aja Aaisha, by Ruger AMW and out of FS Anastasia, the dam of Aja Angelo has also produced besides Aja Angelo, a stunning filly by Aja Justified, Aja Alicia born 2011.

Aja Annabella born 2007 and Aja Antalliyah born 2009, two full sisters to Aja Angelica will now join the Aja Arabians broodmare band.

Aja Angelo is extremely fertile, Tullis Matson of Stallion AI Services, UK, recently commented that his semen quality was "Incredible, off the scale". As Aja Angelo was only 2 last year, we have seven foals due from April 2012 onwards, and there are 4 more due to other breeders, we are very excited to see the results of his first foal crop.

Over the years we have met some truly great breeders', their advice has always been the same "Never forget the importance of a great tail female line". Aja Angelo possesses a great tail female line, in our opinion all the great stallions past and present, invariably do.

Aja Angelo will stand at stud for the 2012 breeding/showing season at Ca Di Gianni training Center Italy, in the very capable hands of Paolo Capecci and Giampaolo Gubbiotti, also their in house Veterinarian Dott. SSA Vanessa Pencelli.

We are sure the collaboration between Aja Arabians, Aja Angelo and the Ca Di Gianni team will be a successful one, please do not hesitate to contact Ca Di Gianni with your enquiries.
